ABSTRACT. The purpose of this note is to point out several open problems centered around the question: "When does the metric projection onto a subspace admit a continuous selection?"