ABSTRACT. In an inner product space $X$, a cone or a linear variety that is generated by a finite number of linear functionals in the dual space $X^*$ is a Chebyshev set (i) if and only if each of the generating functionals attains its norm, and (ii) if and only if each of them has a “Riesz representer” in $X$. 